DAY 02: LIMA CITY TOUR / RUINS OF PACHACAMAC / ICA

09:00 AM. Full day visiting Lima.

This excursion offers the best combination of the different attractions in Lima and its three historical periods: pre-Hispanic, Colonial and Contemporary.

In Lima, there were several different pre-Columbian cultures, which are date thousands of years back. Lima was part of the Inca Empire until was founded by the Spaniard Francisco Pizarro on the 18 of January 1535. During our guided tour we will travel along its millenary history. The Peruvian viceroyalty was the most important one in the Spanish Empire and Lima was its capital. Our trip includes the Promenade of the Republic, San Martin Square, and Main Square, with their different buildings: Government Palace, archbishop's Palace, Cathedral Basilica and Municipal Palace. We will enter the monumental convent of San Francisco, which displays the biggest collections of religious art in America. We can admire the Choir Room and the Monk's Library, the Sacristy, its beautiful Moorish arches and its subterranean crypts known as the Catacombs, where you will feel the presence of Lima's colonial past.

Trip to the south of Lima (31 Km). We will visit a Sacred and Ceremonial Place considered as a part of MYSTIC AXIS OF THE WORLD at the beginning of the Christian era. The major Pre-Hispanic ceremonial center on the Pacific Coast of America. Place of pilgrimage for worshipping and for consulting the oracle of PACHACAMAC "Lord of the World" Totally built in adobe (mud bricks). We will visit temples, palaces and squares carefully restored. The tour includes a visit to green Coast beaches, the wetlands of villa and views of the Pacific Ocean.
